

SOCIETY and Club

V. F. W. AUXILIARY TO MEET THIS EVENING
The regular meeting of V. F. W. Auxiliary will be held at McDonald hall this evening, Thursday, July 24, at 7:30 p.m. Members are urged to attend as matters of important business will be transacted.

HARMONY CLUB AT STEVENSON HOME
Mrs. A. P. Stevenson was hostess to members of the Harmony Club when she entertained at luncheon last week at her home on El Prado. Tables were arranged in the attractive patio and covers were placed for 12. Those present were Mrs. E. E. Banks and her guests, Mrs. C. E. Gustavson and Mrs. William Gascogne, L. N. Pierce, S. R. Ludlow, H. M. Haynes, E. W. Lock, B. F. Dye, L. D. Babcock and Hugh Herring. Sewing occupied the early afternoon hours.

EMMETTS ENTERTAIN AT BARBECUE PARTY
Mr. and Mrs. Carney A. Emmet were hosts when they entertained the personnel of their El Prado Furniture store Sunday at an all-day barbecue steak party at their home. Those present were Messrs. and Mrs. Homer Wood, Clifton Toni, F. S. Marshall, her mother, Mrs. G. Grizzell; his father, F. Emmet, Frank Dominguez, and Felix Gillespie.

C. A. WHITES AT FAMILY REUNION
The home of Mrs. C. A. White on Carson st. was the setting for an enjoyable family reunion and dinner party Sunday when 22 were present from Glendale, Wilmington, South Gate and Torrance. A yellow and brown color arrangement was accented in the colorful flowers used for the buffet table.

NEWS OF WOMEN OF THE MOOSE
Torrance Chapter No. 44, Women of the Moose, will hold a special meeting at the lodge hall tomorrow morning, Friday, July 25 at 11 o'clock. Cards will be enjoyed during the afternoon and a small charge will be made. The food sale held Saturday, July 19, with Zoe E. Dethlers as chairman, was a complete success, according to Leila Heglin, publicity chairman.

The next regular meeting will be held Friday evening, August 1. All members are requested to be present as important business will be transacted.

Mrs. C. C. Holley was honored when her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Gramling, entertained at dinner at their home Sunday on the occasion of her birthday anniversary.

* FASHION PREVIEW *

As a backbone for your college wardrobe, this two-piece suit of gray men's wear flannel is just what you'll need. The August Good Housekeeping points to its long, loose jacket with mammoth pockets, its short skirt and fly front.

STORK SHOWER HONORS MATRON

Mrs. Louis Cochrane was honored when Mrs. Ruth Found and Essa Russell entertained at an attractively appointed buffet luncheon for 18 at the home of Mrs. E. E. Banks last Thursday afternoon. A stork motif was accented and a pink and blue color arrangement was used throughout. Mrs. Cochrane received many lovely gifts presented in a decorated bassinet. Progressive luncheon furnished diversion with prizes for everyone.

CATHOLIC PARTY THIS EVENING

Hostesses for the Catholic card party this evening at Nativity hall are Mrs. Wilken, Stapelfeld, Janssen, Murphy, Roos, Frederick, Shaner and Schroeder. Everyone is cordially invited. There will be refreshments and a door prize in addition to other prizes.

Ask Labor Groups to Join C.C. in Improving City

Representatives of organized labor in Torrance will be asked to work with the Chamber of Commerce through its newly-appointed public relations committee, headed by Max N. Felker, it was announced this week by Dean L. Sears, chamber president. It is hoped through this cooperation to create a better understanding between factory employees and business interests, Sears explained. Further efforts to bring in various interests in the community to take part in chamber of commerce activities will also be made, Sears said.

Other committee appointments for the 1941-42 term are announced as follows: Membership, Dean L. Sears; advertising and promotion, Harvel Guttenfelder; merchants' committee, Fay L. Parks; community service, Otto Kresse; transportation, Sherwood McIntyre; industrial promotion, R. R. Smith; legislative, Fred Isaacs, and housing, A. H. Silligo. The above directors will act as chairmen of the committees, drawing upon the membership to make up the balance of their committees.

The executive committee, composed of Sears, Felker, and Silligo were authorized to outline the functions of the various committees so as to avoid any conflict of activities.

Thirsty Burglar Gets Pop From Ice-House

"Somebody wanted a cold drink and plenty of it," Otto Batsch said Tuesday morning when he discovered the lock had been broken off his ice house at the service station at 2319 Arlington avenue and two cases of pop stolen.
